Barnacle

Barnstable High School
Class of 1951

Johann Heinrich and Ernst Krug

Dedication

WE, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-one, dedicate this edition of the Barnacle to Hans Heinrick and Ernst Krug. These two German boys came from their country to ours with their class and professor to study agriculture techniques in the various high schools. We are very glad and proud to have had the privilege of having them with us.

Just as Hans and Ernst have had courage in coming to another land, we must have the same kind of courage as we leave the guidance of our school and parents to venture into the world.

Preface

On the following pages of this our book, the BARN-
ACLE staff has tried to illustrate and preserve the precious six years that we have spent in Barnstable High School.

We are sure that you will agree with us that it isn't the classes and homework that we will remember after we bid farewell to our citadel and go out into the open world, but the friends and good times that made our stay stimulating.

And so, as you glance through the pages of this book of memories and reviews we hope that fond recollections will be recalled and that you will say, "It wasn't so bad after all."

CLASS HISTORY

IN September, 1947, thrilled and very excited, 105 of us began at Barnstable High School our freshman year and the study of courses we had chosen. It didn't take long for us to become accustomed to our routine.

Many of our classmates chose varsity sports, orchestra, band, and glee club; some became members of "The Clipper" staff. In the early spring, the combined glee clubs and orchestra presented one of Gilbert and Sullivan's operettas, "The Gondoliers," under the direction of Mr. Rodney Wiggin and Miss Dorothy Barton, our music supervisors.

In the fall of 1948, we returned to B.H.S., but this time as sophomores and being sophomores, we elected our class adviser and first class officers. Miss M. Louise Hayden was chosen class adviser; Robert Morin, president; Diann Eldredge, vice president; Rosemary Lahteine, secretary; and Janet Griffin, treasurer. That year Martha Schultz and Anne Clarke were elected to represent us on the Student Council.

Basketball was in full swing during the winter months and ended in February with our Barnstable High School Red Raiders capturing the title of "Cape Cod Champions" in their game at the Camp Edwards arena against Provincetown. This was a great honor and thrill for us all; and, sharing the spotlight in winning this title, were Richard Dolins and George Davis from our class. The boys were feted at a banquet and received their trophy and sweaters. Our girls were special guests to this banquet; and they, too, received a trophy and gold basketballs for their fine spirit of fair play and sportsmanship. Also, the girls were presented grey and red reversible jackets.

As is a custom of all sophomore classes, we held our first dance in February, the Sophomore Hop. The dance was a great success. The theme of our dance was valentines. Pinky Hinckley and Dick Dolins were crowned King and Queen of Hearts amid gay decorations of hearts and cupids.

On March 25, Anne Clarke was recognized in the Boston Herald as the outstanding athlete of the week. Again we were proud to see a member of our class honored publicly.

With the completion of another memorable school year, summer came and passed quickly by; and now, September 1949, we, a class of 119 members, resumed our studies as juniors. Class elections were held. Robert Morin was elected president; Richard Dolins, vice president; Janet Griffin, treasurer; and Rosemary Lahteine, secretary. The Student Council resumed its duties with Paul Lebel elected to its membership.

Football got into swing again with Howie Bearse, Ted Ashley, Dick Burch, Neil Nightingale, and Ed Ducharme sharing the honors in their fine playing. This year our hard-fighting team defeated Coyle for the first time in many years. What a thrill it was!

Class rings were on everyone's mind during the early fall, and before Christmas they were on everyone's finger; but only after our ring committee (Virginia Campana, Richard Dolins, James Kelley, Gretchen Riedell, and Ellen Simpson) had studied and helped us in making our choice.

The boys had a fair season in basketball, and George Davis and Dick Dolins were again members of the team. The girls' team started for the Championship of Cape Cod and marched right to it with eleven straight victories under the guidance of coach Miss Katherine Nehubian. They played at the Camp Edwards arena and captured the title from the Orleans girls; and you saw at B.H.S. very happy girls, strutting around and flashing their gold basketballs. From our class, were Pauline Coggeshall, Anne Clarke, and Martha Schultz. The girls were guests of honor at a banquet at which they received their huge trophies and red jackets.

Our first formal function was the Junior Prom, the theme of which was Cinderella. Held May 19, 1950, this was arranged by an able committee consisting of Virginia Campana, Chairman; Diann Eldridge, Sheila McGoff, Richard Dolins, James Kelley, and Anne Clarke, assisted by Miss Hayden, our class adviser. The music was furnished by Roger Gott's orchestra and more than ninety couples attended. The Grand March was led by Robert Morin, our president, and Barbara Palmer under the subdued lights in a setting of colorful decorations.

This year the class carried on several projects to raise money, among them the selling of name labels; pens and pencils with the Barn-stable High School seal on them; and in June a joint movie with the AA.

This spring a picture committee was appointed to help us in selecting our photographer and the type of pictures we wanted to have taken in the fall. Considerable study and work was done by this committee to make every senior student satisfied. Committee members were: Edgar Pulsifer, Chairman; Sally Coleman, Ida Edwards, Rosemary Lahteine, Dione Pazakis, George Siddall, and Kenneth Washington.

In June, just before school closed for our summer vacation, Diann Eldridge represented our school at Girls' State.

During the summer five of our boys traveled to the University of Massachusetts to represent the school at Boys' State: Richard Dolins, Brice Eldridge, Edgar Pulsifer, George Siddall, and Frederick Hodge, Jr.

Finally the year had come when the wheel would turn for the last time. As seniors, we knew we should be even more active and busier than we had ever been before. Our membership was now 117. Early in September, we elected our class officers: James Kelley, president; Virginia Campana, vice president; Rosemary Lahteine, secretary; and Marion Phinney, treasurer. Elected to the Student Council were Ellen Simpson and Sheila McGoff. Ellen became president of the Council and Sheila, its secretary-treasurer.

Hardly had the fall term started when class pictures were our major concern. A day was set aside for sittings, and the seniors were well-groomed for this occasion. Then followed days of anxious waiting for the pictures to arrive. We had them just before Christmas.

Football rolled right along with a good season for the boys. They were honored at a banquet on January 19, 1951, and received red sweaters with a white "B" on them. One of our able players and popular classmate, Howard Bearse, was presented the Hinkle Trophy, which is awarded to the senior member of the football squad who, during his high school course, has shown the finest school spirit, the most willing co-operation with coach and team, and the highest degree of sportsmanship both on and off the playing field.

On December 16, 1950, we held a dance in the cafeteria, using Christmas as the theme. The committee, led by Pauline Coggeshall chairman, was assisted by Beverly Jones, Geraldine Hawes, Neil Nightingale, Richard Simonds, Neil Guild, Kenneth Bearse, and James Kelley.

Basketball found our girls on top for the championship, while the boys had a fair season, but they still deserve a lot of credit.

The new year was started off well with a cake sale in Buttner's store with Ellen Simpson as chairman; and on February 2, 1951, a talent show was given at a special assembly by a few of our talented seniors: Joan Soucy, Donald Boyne, Millicent Brown, Ida Edwards, Barbara Clarke, Cornelia Hamblin, Marie Concannon, Calliope Sethares, Robert Morin, Geraldine Hawes, Pauline Coggeshall, Marion Phinney, Constance Bullard, Barbara Brown, Barbara Peters, Elizabeth Hinckley, Martha McDonough, and Rosemary Lahteine.

Because in many of our money-raising activities we have cleared about $30, Miss Hayden has given us the name of "The $30 Class".

We, the class of '51, wish to thank Miss M. Louise Hayden, our class adviser, for the guidance and aid she has offered us and for keeping us on the right road.

One of our major activities as seniors has been to edit the yearbook, the Barnacle. This year's Barnacle was under the competent direction of Mr. Henry Levinson, with Gretchen Riedell, editor-in-chief. Other members of the staff were Sally Coleman, Ellen Simpson, Pauline Coggeshall, Rosemary Lahteine, Nancy Jenkins, Virginia Campana, Kenneth Washington, Constance Rosary, Frederick Hodge, Jr., Edgar Pulsifer, Beverly Ruska, and Sheila McGoff.

As everything comes to an end, so must our six pleasant and wonderful years at Barnstable High School. There is an uncertain and troubled future to face, but we hope

"With the ropes of the past we will ring the bells of the future."

Class Song

BARNSTABLE, WE HAIL THEE, SCHOOL OF HONORED NAME; YOUR MEMORY WILL LINGER, YOUR GLORY, WISDOM, FAME.

A NEW ROAD LIES BEFORE US, A NEW GAP OPENS WIDE,
THE LESSONS THAT YOU TAUGHT US WILL WITH US ABIDE.
BARNSTABLE, WITH IVY WALLS, OF THEE WE SING TODAY;
JOY AND SADNESS MINGLE AS WE JOURNEY ON OUR WAY.

THEE, OUR ALMA MATER, WE WILL NEVER FAIL;
WE WILL NE'ER FORGET THEE, BUT FOREVER SING, "ALL HAIL!"

Class Officers

JAMES R. KELLEY

Who's that good-looking smoothie in our senior class? Who else but Jimmy? A born leader and a good student, Jimmy makes an outstanding class president. After graduation Jim intends to enter Princetown, where he will major in Theology. Having displayed his talent so graciously in DeMolay, he is sure to make the most of his gift.

"There's one proof of ability—action."

VIRGINIA DANIEL CAMPANA

Wherever you find Ginger, you're sure to find original ideas. Active as a cheerleader and on the Barnacle staff as well, she is one of the busiest members of our class. We couldn't have selected a more versatile vice-president. In her spare time, Ginger likes to ride horseback. In the fall she will enter Wheaton, and we are sure she will be just as popular there as she has been here with us.

"A companion that is cheerful is worth gold."

ROSEMARY G. LAHTEINE

Where does Rosie get all her cute sayings? Many of us have wished that we had half her wit. She has a serious side, also, and is Miss Hayden's "girl Friday" when it comes to typing.

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild."

MARION F. PHINNEY

Although at first glance, Marion seems to be quiet, she is really a barrel of fun. Many of us will never forget the laughs and good times she had in the locker room. Marion, our class treasurer and an efficient one, too, plans to join the WAVES and we wish her lots of good sailing in the future!

"Let us have mirth and laughter!"

ELIZABETH A. AALTO

Tall, blond, and blue eyed, Betty is quiet in school, but always has a smile on her lips. Her favorite sports are swimming, hockey, and horse-back riding.

"A bit of seriousness, mixed with a dash of fun."

Girls' Hockey 9, 10, 11, 12; A. A. Member 9, 10.

VAINO A. AHONEN

Vaino is very serious and has very little to say during class time, but he has many friends among the student body who know his good humor. We all envy Vaino and his grand convertible. Good luck in the future, Vaino.

"He was the mildest mannered man."

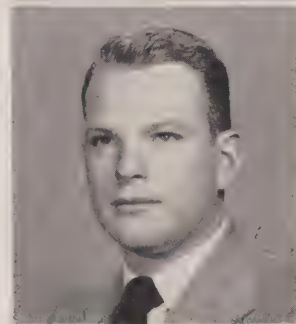

Boys' Glee Club 10; A. A. Member 9; Junior Red Cross 9, 10, 11, 12; Traffic Squad 11, 12.

NEAL F. AMES

Neal was one of our prize athletes in varsity football. Seems as though his husky appearance is the envy of many. We missed him the year he spent at New Hampton, and we are glad to have had him back with us this year.

EDWARD F. ASHLEY

Our "Ted" is the man with the easy sense of humor, happy-go-lucky outlook on life, and a way with women. Ted played football for B.H.S. and the Townies. Rough and rugged, he was one of the best players. And Ted had his own cheering section made up of his female fans. Blond, blue-eyed, with an easy blush, he makes a big hit wherever he goes.

"I have an exposition of sleep come upon me."

Football 9, 10, 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12; Junior Red Cross 9, 10, 11, 12; First Aid 10.

JOHN K. ATSALIS

"Dundee," as he is better known to his pals at school, is always close at hand when there is fun or frolic. His ready wit and pleasant smile are recognized all over the school. Beneath his carefree nature, Dundee is a good student.

"No sinner, yet no saint perhaps."

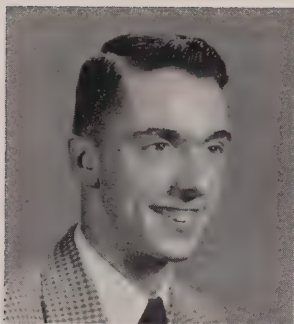

Football 9, 10; Basketball 12; Baseball; A. A. Member 9; Junior Red Cross 9, 10, 11, 12; Junior Prom Committee.

HOWARD C. BEARSE

Howie is one fellow that everyone likes. His easy blush and disarming grin give evidence of his sunny disposition. As halfback for our Red Raiders, he made more touchdowns than any other player this year. However, baseball is Howie's favorite sport, and he hopes to play "pro" in the future. We are all rooting for you, Howie.

Football 9, 10, 11, 12; Basketball 10; Baseball 9, 10, 11, 12; A. A. Member 9, 10.

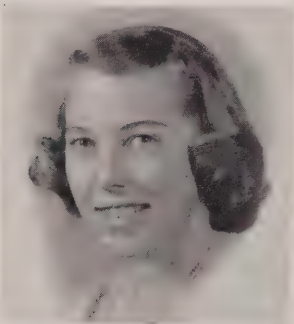

KENNETH W. BEARSE

Ken, who plays a "hot" trumpet, has been a faithful member of the band all through his school years. His chief interests lie in music and sports. He has displayed his musical talent in many local minstrel shows and his athletic ability in numerous sports events. In the future Kenny hopes to become a flyer.

BARBARA M. BOYD

Barbara came to us this year after spending four years in Germany and Switzerland where her father was with the Army. It's swell to have her back with us. "Barb" loves to ride horseback, play tennis, and participate in all kinds of sports.

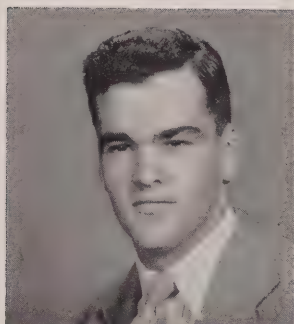

"Blest with that charm."

DONALD S. BOYNE

Don is one of the class crooners. His fine voice has added quality and charm to our musical productions. Riding around in his hot-rod, waving to everyone, and singing as he goes—that's Don.

"Full of fun and fancy free."

JOHN BRADLEY, III

John, another representative from Cotuit, is one of the few members of the class who has taken all the degrees of the "Termites" and is now a full-fledged boat builder. Even though John is small, he can still get in his share of laughs (ask Mr. Howes). His hobby is building model airplanes, and we hear he is very good at it.

"Whose little body lodg'd a mighty mind."

Band; Junior Red Cross 9; First Aid 9; Poster Contest 9.

JOHN BROUGHTON

John is by far the most quiet, reserved boy in the class, but get him out of class and watch out! He can usually be found riding around in his hot-rod after classes. Good luck in the future, John.

"He that has patience may compass anything."

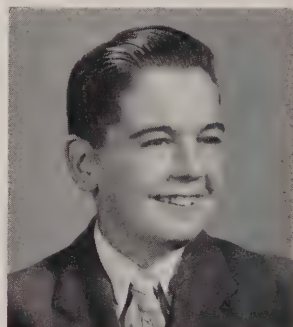

Junior Red Cross 9, 10, 11, 12.

BARBARA A. BROWN

"Barb" is a girl who typifies the old saying, "Good things come in small packages." We will remember Barb especially for her beautiful clothes and her casual, friendly manner. A devotee to the "Wrong number" system, Barb keeps the lines busy in Hyannis.

"My crown is in my heart, not on my head; it is called contentment."

MILLICENT A. BROWN

"Milly" comes near the top in the Class of 1951's list of fun makers. She has a habit of dropping her books at precisely the right moment. Her ability to get along with people is rare and will be an asset in whatever she undertakes. A quick smile is never lacking, and an elfish quality seems to seep into her conversation.

"Good nature and good sense are her companions."

CONSTANCE M. BULLARD

"Connie" is a carefree girl from Centerville, who enjoys a lively game of basketball at any time. She is noted for her gay chatter and especially for her funny stories. Her ability to cheer up any down-hearted classmate has made her a popular student in the business course.

"A good sort and a good sport."

"Books—'tis dull and endless strife."

JOYCE C. CARLSON

Despite her quiet and reserved outward appearance, Joyce is actually full of fun. She can always be counted on to complete her job accurately and well. We know her silent and determined efforts will continue to bring her success.

Noel seems to eat, sleep, and drink cars. If you ever need someone to fix your car—get Noel. He plays a mean harmonica, too. Noel is also an active member of the Centerville Athletic Association, which makes him a good mixer.

"A fellow of plain and uncoined constancy."

Track 9, 10, 11; A. A. Member 9.

ANNE N. CLARKE

Anne has been recognized by everyone for her great abilities on the basketball floor and in the classroom. She was named as the athlete of the week in a Boston newspaper. We surely are proud of her!

Student Council

THE Student Council went right to work this year to establish a standard ring for Barnstable High School. Designs were drawn by the students and the top two designs were voted upon by the student body of the high school. The winning design was drawn by William Childs and Brooks Kelley. This ring has been adopted by the Barnstable High School and will be recognized as the official school ring.

As this book goes to print, the Council is writing a Constitution for the Barnstable High School Chapter of the National Honor Society. This Society will give due recognition to students having high scholastic records.

A senior, Ellen Simpson, has served faithfully as president. Edward Cliggott represented the juniors as vice-president. Sheila McGoff, another senior, has been secretary-treasurer. The two other councilmen representing the senior class were Martha Schultz and Anne Clarke.

THE girls' glee club, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Barton, is one of the largest activity groups in the school. The complete chorus consists of 120 members, 32 of whom are seniors. This large group first showed its adeptness and musical ability during our annual Christmas Program at which time the girls sang the lovely "Christmas Child" and the enchanting "Bells".

Nine of the senior girls have formed a senior choir which meets once a week. They are directed by Mr. Simon Gesin and accompanied on the piano by June Pierce. The girls work in three-part harmony on popular songs. They have hopes of entertaining the Cape Cod Music Festival and will sing in the annual Spring Concert held in May.

Boys' Glee Club

UNDER the able direction of Mr. Simon Gesin, the boys' glee club has formed a very harmonious chorus. The boys take a great deal of interest in their group and have given a lot of pleasure to their audiences.

In the Christmas assembly, the boys gave very stirring presentations of "Silent Night", "Falan Tiding Dids", and "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen".

The glee club was honored by an invitation to sing at the Rotary Club during the Christmas season. They will also participate in the Spring Concert on May 3rd.

High School Band

THE B.H.S. band, conducted by Mr. Simon Gesin, has helped maintain school spirit at all football games. Its color and vim have been an added attraction to the games.

As is the custom, the band participated in the Armistice and Memorial Day parades and accompanied Santa Claus on his arrival in Hyannis. It also took part in a number of high school assemblies. This year, the band was requested to play at the Cape Cod Basketball Championship Games at the huge Camp Edwards Arena.

Two members of our band went to the New England Concert Festival held in Maine this year. They were two seniors, Cornelia Hamblin and James Santos.

Other seniors in the band were George Siddall, captain; Kenny Bearse, Neil Guild, and Ellen Simpson.

Second Row: George Siddall, Esther Pierce.

Third Row: Cornelia Hamblin, Kenneth Bearse, Robert Fraser and Director Simon Gesin.

High School Orchestra

THE Barnstable High School Orchestra has been hard at work all year under the baton of Mr. Simon Gesin. The orchestra took part in the Christmas assembly and it will perform during the presentation of the senior class play, "My Friend Irma".

From our orchestra, two juniors, Corrine Hord and Janet Place, attended the New England Music Festival in Maine.

The seniors in the orchestra are George Siddall, Jr., and Cornelia Hamblin.

Second Row: Carole Crocker, Audrey Coleman, Polly Marchant, William Childs, Dian Hinckley, Deborah Howes and Louise McDonough.

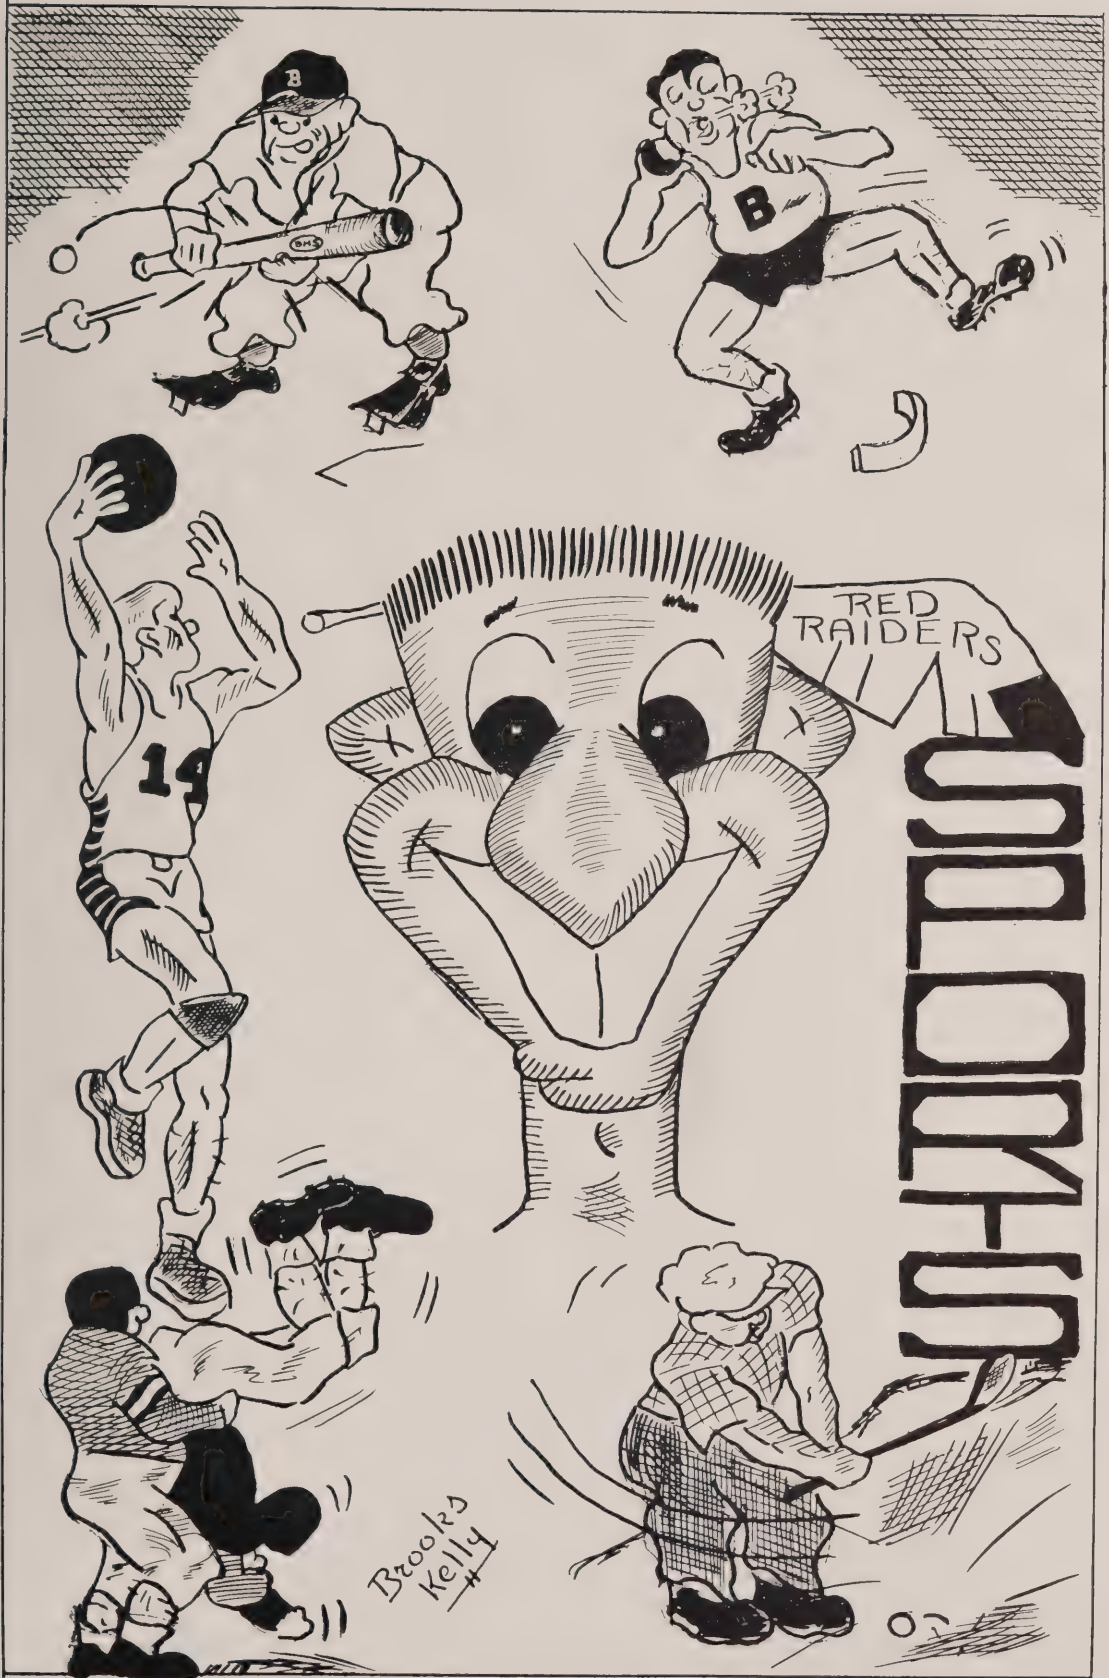

The Clipper

THE CLIPPER, our school magazine, is one of which we are justly proud. This year, it won the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Award again for content, quality, and arrangement in national competition.

Published four times a year, The Clipper has everything nautical. Favorite features with the students are Cruisin' Around with C-Weed, Flashin's on Fashions, and Sports.

Mary Sylvester and Jean Stringer led the editorial staff as co-editors with Mrs. Catherine Towey as staff adviser. Other writers in the crew were Diane Hinckley, Audrey Coleman, Pauline Coggeshall, Geraldine Hawes, Deborah Howes, Polly Marchant, Carole Crocker, John Aylmer, Brooks Kelly, and William Childs.

The typing staff was under the direction of Miss Louise Hayden, and the business crew was directed by Miss Blanche Barbanti.

Football Team

ALTHOUGH Barnstable High's football team, the Red Raiders, did not win all of their games, they displayed an undying spirit and will to win. Their record shows 3 wins and 5 losses but the boys say it very easily could have been 6 wins and 2 losses. They played excellent ball in Needham and lost, the same in Wareham.

Many of the players will get another crack at these teams and will really show them how to play next year. The seniors are Captain Howard Bearse, Ted Ashley, Red Morin, Bob Shields, Frank Thacher, Dick Burch, Jim Kelley, Tom Harlow, Dick Washington, and Neil Nightingale. Their leaving will mean a big loss to the team and we will surely miss them; but with the help of Hostetter, Fermino, Alymer, and Nickula, the future of the team doesn't look too dark.

Boys' Basketball

COMING up fast in the latter part of the season, the Barnstable Red Raiders tied for second place in the Upper Cape hoop race. However, Coach Freddie Maki's greatest triumph came when his team reached the semi-finals of the Small Schools' Tourney, only to be edged out 59-54 by a Stoneham team, which went on to win the Class B title. The team finished with a record of 8 wins and 7 defeats or a .600 average. (Not including the Townies' Tourney.)

The Raiders reached the semi-finals of the Barnstable Townies' Tourney, whipping the Lawrencians and Harwich P.M.C., only to lose to the Orleans Legion. On the basis of his 58 points and his aggressive play in the three games, Nickula was awarded the Joseph MacEacheron Memorial Trophy.

The only two seniors on the team were Dick Dolins and George Davis.

Girls' Basketball

THE Upper-Cape Champions—that's our girls' basketball team. They have played outstanding basketball throughout the season with only one defeat, which was due to a slight defect in the team.

Good shooting and fine passwork are the big assets that the girls possess to keep them on top. Barnstable High has always been proud of its girls' team, and of Anne Clarke, our senior, who was honored last year by The Boston Herald, as being "the girl basketball player of the week." It takes girls like Anne to play good basketball.

A great deal of credit is due Coach Nehubian, for her expert coaching which has resulted in the girls' basketball team becoming the champions.

Girls' Hockey

THIS year the Barnstable High School girls' hockey team ended the hockey season with the senior-sophomore game. Having been successful in winning the game with the juniors, the Seniors lost their hope of becoming the winners when they were defeated by the sophomore team 3-1. It was a hard-fought game all the way. The seniors give credit to Millicent Brown, who made their only goal.

The sophomores have a very promising team, and, no doubt, will be winners when they become seniors.

 Second row: William Diniak, George Maddox, Ted Ashley, Richard White, Barry Sturgis.

Baseball Team

"LOOKS very promising," says Coach Charlie Howes. That's what the coach of the Barnstable High baseball team prophesied when he was asked to give the prospects of the team. He ought to know!

There are eleven games scheduled: the first, a home game with Yarmouth on April 27; the last, on June 4 with Bourne. Coach Howes is looking forward to the Cape Championship play-off on June 5, when he hopes to meet Orleans and really show them that the Red Raiders are not to be beaten twice in a row.

Out of the twenty-seven members of the squad, seven are seniors: Howard Bearse, a five-year regular; Red Morin, catcher; Al Crocker, third baseman; Ted Ashley, Bill Diniak, Ed Ducharme, and Frank Thacher.

A few other top players are Behlman, Nickula, Germani, and McIntyre.

Mr. MacSwan is coaching the Junior Varsity baseball team.

 Second Row: Ellen Simpson, Martha McDonough, Ida Edwards, Geraldine Hawes.

Girls' Softball Team

THE girls' softball team has made a very successful record this year. The girls of Barnstable High always put up a great game regardless of the kind of ball they are playing, and that's what they did in softball.

Softball requires good batting and quick thinking, which the girls have shown throughout their season.

Track Team

TRACK has been revived at B.H.S. and has taken a terrific upward trend, both in popularity and importance. Boosted by such capable men as Coach Fred Maki, Athletic Director Leo Shields, the newly formed Boosters Club, and many others, the revival of track has been given a tremendous uplift.

The 1951 track team reported twenty-two strong on April 2. As time went on, the track slowly was worked into condition and more serious work begun. Some of the athletes who will vie for honors on the cinder path are: Ray Hostetter, a flashback from last year; Donald Wright, Neil Whiteley, long distance plodder; Bill Nye and Sheldon Segarman, sophomores; Bill Rose and Cecil Colman, seniors.

In the weight and field events, Mel Graves, Bill Rose, Dick Simonds, and Bill Nye, at high jump; Bill Beldan, at pole vault; Hostetter, Whiteley, Dick Dollins, and Wright, at broad jump. Tossing the discus are Brooks Kelley and Jack Aylmer. John Lewis and Ed Crosby are newcomers. At the shot-put are Caleb Fraser, Paul Lebel, Jay O'Brien, Bob Smith, and Pete Lebel. Meets have been scheduled with Wareham, Yarmouth, and a Tri-Meet with both. Berths in the South Shore Meet at Weymouth have been booked and others are anticipated.

Cheerleaders

THE B.H.S. cheerleaders, under the supervision of Miss Gath, have done a fine job of leading the Barnstable fans in support of their teams. Diann Eldredge as captain has led the girls with untiring energy and enthusiasm. The seniors are petite Sheila McGoff, peppy Ginger Campana, lively Janet Griffin, and pert Margaret Pickering. The only junior is Alice Murphy, whose charm and poise will aid her as cheerleading captain next year. The sophomores are Marlene Oehme, Judy Higgins, and Helen George, with Gael Campana and Phyllis Clough as substitutes.

The girls might have been at a loss in some low moments in games had it not been for their little mascot, Joyce Richards, whose acrobatic skill and pranks boosted everyone's morale.
